

THE DAVE STAHL BIG BAND

and The Lovely Ladies of Song

We are very excited to announce this truly special event. The Dave Stahl Big Band will return to the Carlisle Elks on Thursday October 19th beginning at 7:30 PM with 'The Lovely Ladies of Song'. Joining Dave and the band will be special guests Amy Banks and Kelly Delaveris along with our own Robin Work.

Amy Banks - Amy's professional career began in Atlanta Georgia where she performed for more than two decades as a singer, actress and television personality. Gaining national recognition she was tapped by the Walt Disney World Company to sing both female roles in "Festival of the Lion King". Pennsylvanians may remember her appearances at the American Music Theatre, the Academy of Music or the Berk's Jazz Festival.

Kelly Delaveris - Kelly has been singing professionally since 1978. Inspired by her father's collection of big band recordings she became one of the most sought after big band singers of her time. She has been a featured performer with the Columbus Jazz Orchestra, the Brooklyn Jazz Orchestra and has opened for big names like Bob James, Sarah Vaughn and Tony Bennett.
